Colonel Arnold Is Stricken At Parachute Demonstration

Colonel E. G. Arnold, Professor of Military Science and Tactics at Gettysburg College, is in the Post hospital at Fort Benning, Georgia. He was stricken with a still undiagnosed ailment while attending a parachute demonstration at the Georgia Post.

Colonel Arnold completed a summer camp assignment at Fort George G. Meade last week and left for Fort Benning to visit some Army friends for a few days. He expected to return to Gettysburg Sunday and leave Monday on a 46-day leave to the west coast and Alaska. While viewing the parachute demonstration on Saturday he was suddenly stricken and rushed to the Post hospital where Army surgeons have not as yet diagnosed the ailment. Army doctors are considering the advisability of removing Colonel Arnold to Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, by plane.

Recreation Board Is Created By Council For Playground Work

Gettysburg's borough Council at its August meeting, Monday evening, adopted an ordinance setting up a Recreation Board for Gettysburg "to supervise, equip, operate and maintain playgrounds" and to be subject to responsibilities provided for in the state borough code.

The board will have five members, all of them to be appointed by the burgess. The only specification about the personnel of the board given in the ordinance is that it shall include two school directors among the group of five.

Members will serve for terms of five years or until their successors are appointed, the ordinance states. Provision is made for staggering the terms of the first appointees so that one shall retire each year. Vacancies occurring on the board are to be filled by the burgess.

Elect Own Chairman

The ordinance provides that the board shall elect its own chairman and secretary "and select all other necessary officers to serve for a period of one year and may employ such persons as may be needed." The board is given the power to adopt rules and regulations for the conduct of all business within its jurisdiction.

COLOMBIA NIPS PLOT TO UPSET ARMY PROGRAM

Bogota, Colombia, Aug. 5 (AP)—Colombia, has joined the growing list of Latin American countries taking action against anti-Democratic activities by announcing that an attempt to indoctrinate the Army with totalitarian ideals had been nipped.

Detention of an undisclosed number of persons—unofficial estimates ranged from 40 to 200—and seizure of quantities of documents were announced last night by War Minister Martinez in connection with an investigation into alleged subversive activities.

The Bogota radio charged that Nazi elements were behind the movements. There were rumors that at least one German was among those detained, but the German legation denied any German nationals were being held.

Assails Nazi-ism

Disclosure of the government investigation followed by two weeks a message to Congress in which President Eduardo Santos bitterly assailed Nazi-ism and said Colombia's position as a neighbor of Panama obligated her to see that the Panama Canal never is menaced from her territory.

In his formal announcement the War Minister assured the nation that the situation was completely in hand and said there was no cause for anxiety.

Castro Martinez said no active members of the Army were among those seized.

An informed source said the German legation had for several months been printing a special Spanish edition of German Army bulletins for distribution to Colombian armed forces. This source said it was common to see uniformed soldiers and sailors calling at the legation for bulletins and other Nazi printed matter.

Raid German Office

Only last week the Argentine government raided headquarters of a German welfare culture movement at Parana.

Late in July Bolivia expelled German Minister Ernst Wendler for alleged participation in a purported Nazi conspiracy to overthrow the government.

Earlier in the same month the Paraguay Army command announced it had quashed a "subversive plot" involving marine officers apparently inspired by totalitarian ideals.

"Cost Of Living To Hit New High," Henderson

Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—Leon Henderson, head of the Office of Price Administration, told Congress today that the nation faced the "strongest and most pronounced increase in the cost of living," even if the administration's price-control bill became law immediately.

Testifying before the House banking committee as the first witness on the measure, Henderson declared that even with the powers which the bill would confer, the government would have an "enormous load" in trying to prevent the country's "dynamic, volatile economy" from entering an inflationary stage.

Using a series of towering charts to illustrate his remarks, Henderson said the nation's price structure was "knocking at the door" of 1929

Council Sidesteps Parking Ordinance After Warm Debate

Burgess Heiges Advocates Two-Hour Parking Limit As An Accommodation To Tourists and Shoppers; Opinions Conflict As To Time And Area Covered

After a half-hour discussion in which several members of council picked flaws in a new Gettysburg borough parking ordinance proposed to replace one adopted in June, councilmen postponed until September final decision on the question of what changes, if any, shall be made in the ordinance with regard to parking time limits on the four main streets and Center Square.

The argument, which disclosed a lack of harmony on the safety committee and brought on a sharp clash between Burgess C. A. Heiges and Councilman Frank B. Slonaker, ended with a warning from President Ray M. Hoffman that unless councilmen "get together" by next month on changes in the present parking rules, the whole matter will be dropped and the present ordinance ordered enforced.

The discussion opened when Borough Secretary Wilmer Dracha read a long parking ordinance similar to the present measure except that it changed some of the time limits and fixed the effective period of the parking time limits between 1 a. m. and 6 p. m. The present ordinance is in effect 24 hours a day.

The ships are commanded by Rear Admiral S. A. Taffinder.

The text of the Navy announcement follows:

"The Navy Department announced today that two heavy cruisers, the Northampton and the Salt Lake City, Rear Admiral S. A. Taffinder, N. S. Navy, commanding the detachment, while on a training cruise to the South Pacific ocean, have put in to Brisbane, Australia, for refueling and several days recreation for the personnel of the ship's companies."

Sets Time Limit

The measure provided for a one-hour limit in Center Square and the first blocks of the four main streets. At present the limit is 30 minutes in the Square and one hour in the first blocks. The proposed ordinance also provided for a three-hour limit in the second and third blocks of Baltimore, Chambersburg and Carlisle streets and the second, third and fourth blocks of York street.

Immediately after the measure was read Burgess Heiges took the floor to urge a two-hour limit for the four first blocks. He was repeatedly interrupted by Councilman Slonaker who accused him of changing his views expressed when the ordinance was being drawn. President Hoffman had to call Slonaker to order so that the Burgess could proceed.

Asks 2-Hour Limit

The Burgess, who said he was for the proposal ordinance except for its one-hour provision for the first blocks, declared that all but one member of the committee preparing the ordinance had agreed on a two-hour limit for the first blocks. He said he had canvassed the opinions of 30 or 40 businessmen in these blocks and found all but one of them in favor of a two-hour rather than a one-hour limit. The Burgess claimed that one hour is not long enough for tourists to dine and shop.

Then Councilman H. M. Oyler rose to ask why the extra blocks beyond the second originally covered by parking restrictions had been included. He moved the ordinance be tabled for further study but the discussion went on. Another questioned the addition of an extra block on York street and the Burgess said it had been included to handle furniture factory parking. The 1 a. m. to 6 p. m. limits of the ordinance were questioned.

Establish Street Grades

Finally Councilman Oyler remade his motion to table and it was seconded and carried putting off for another month final decision on the questions.

Council passed an ordinance authorized at a special session last month establishing grades for Chambersburg street and Buford avenue from the curb lines instead of the center line of the street. The measure was passed to enable the State Highway department to make improvements on those streets.

The monthly report of Borough Treasurer Fred G. Pfeffer showed the borough received about $18,000 last month in 1941 taxes and retired $4,000 in notes from the general fund leaving a balance of $13,111. A summary of borough expenses for the year showed a total of about $18,000 to date. Council did not act on Mr. Pfeffer's suggestion that a major part of the $7,500 balance in the special fund, which will not be needed for six months, be placed on certificate to draw interest.

Petition Withdrawn

The International Association of Chiefs of Police offered the Gettysburg chief an opportunity to learn of civil defense methods, first-hand, from observers in total war areas in Europe at a conference in New York from August 18 to 21. Councilman Slonaker announced he was not in favor of "spending any more money on the police" and moved the letter be tabled. The motion was seconded and it carried.

Councilman Samuel Weikert withdrew the petition of residents of Steinwehr avenue extended, presented last month, asking annexation to the borough. He explained the petition was not in proper form.

CIO ASKS AID IN UNIONTOWN TIMBER STRIKE

Uniontown, Pa., Aug. 5 (AP)—The CIO quickly reorganized its picket lines today and called upon members of the United Mine Workers for aid after an independent union began delivering truck loads of badly needed posts to mines in the Connellsville coal and coke region.

A strike called by the CIO July 21 had halted such movement. Alex Z. Goldstein, counsel for the Tri-State Lumbermen's Association, estimated 250 truckloads moved yesterday and predicted the number would be doubled today.

The association last week signed a contract with the Independent Tri-State Lumbermen and Truckers Union, increasing wages approximately 20 cents an hour to a minimum of 50 cents and a maximum of 75.

C. J. Myers, union organizer, announced the CIO group which called the strike has been granted a charter by the United Construction Workers with Mike Packrall, of Friendsville, Maryland, as president.

Miners Join Group
Myers asserted a large group of miners had agreed to aid the striking pickets and predicted that by Thursday his group would have so many of the timber operators "signed up" the association would have to accept his organization as representative of the workers.

"The coming of the state police stirred up the miners 100 per cent and they are coming out to fight for us," Myers said.

Council

and that another will be prepared later.

Luther I. Sachs came before council to ask a sewer extension on Locust street in a section where he is building three new houses and where he expects to erect a number of other homes. The National Park office will be asked to move its "one way traffic" sign on Wainwright avenue southward several hundred feet to open the way for an intersection with Locust street which is to be extended.

Sewage Plant Complaints
Eric Larson, Buford avenue, came before council to report he has received tax notices from both the borough and Cumberland township and asked for information on the location of the borough line. He was told he is taxed properly in the borough. Later Mr. Larson took the floor again to ask what redress he and other west end residents have against the establishment of a "junk business in our backyards." Councilmen said he referred apparently to the old brick yard property. Solicitor E. V. Bulleit advised him to consult private legal counsel.

Burgess Heiges reported new complaints about the sewage disposal plant. President Hoffman explained that Councilman Clyde Berger, who is in charge of developments of plans for improving the plant, is ill and not able now to report on progress.

Hear Complaints
Council heard that the alley east of Baltimore street on Baltimore hill is in bad repair; that a section of the first block of East Middle street is in need of repair; that "shacks" in the alley along Baltimore street are unsanitary and a menace to the health of the neighborhood; that smoke traps are to be placed on stacks at the Gettysburg Furniture factories following investigation by a council committee of citizens' complaints last week; that a bad crossing at Liberty and East Middle streets needs repairs and that traffic and parking conditions need attention at the intersection of Buford and Seminary avenues.

The Board of Health will be asked to act in the sanitary problem along the Baltimore street alley. The State Department of Highways is to be asked to place a stop sign at the Buford-Seminary avenue intersection where intersection lines are to be painted to eliminate a dangerous parking situation.

The Burgess was authorized to proceed with weed cutting where lot owners have ignored borough notices to get rid of the weeds. The bill then will be collected from the owner by Solicitor E. V. Bulleit. Final notices to build curbs or pavements were ordered sent to C. C. Reunigh and to Messrs. Zerling Leatherman and Kauffman on Seminary avenue.

Burgess Collects $702
The monthly report of Burgess Heiges showed total collections of $702, including $31 in building permits; $125.50 in digging permits; 75 cents in sewer permits; $20 in pediclers' permits; $45 for roller hire; $27 for guides' licenses; $427.77 for amusement taxes; $17 for fines, and $8.60 collected for weeds mowed by the borough on private property.

President Hoffman presided with these councilmen present: Frank B. Stonaker, D. D. Dendlehart, Samuel Weikert, H. M. Oyler, William E. Biddle, Wilbur J. Stallsmith and Charles W. Sterner. Secretary Drach, Burgess Heiges, Solicitor Bulleit, Treasurer Pfeiffer and Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner also attended.

PUBLIC TO SEE EUROPEAN ART

Philadelphia, Aug. 5 (AP)—The public is going to get its first look at Christian Brinton's collection of contemporary European art because he feels that "70 is the time of life when a man who collects treasures should share them with the world."

He presented to the Philadelphia Museum of Art his complete collection obtained through contacts with the artists during personalized tours of central Europe. It will go on display starting November 15.

The noted art critic and collector declined to place a monetary value on his 160 paintings, 75 drawings, innumerable wood carvings, decorative work, textiles and costumes, but said that "so far as the educational value is concerned, the collection is priceless."

The majority of the work is that of Russian artists. In addition to the actual art there are more than 5,000 books and pamphlets concerning the artists, many written by Brinton who has been a prolific commentator since 1908.

"This collection represents 25 years of very fortunate circumstances," said Brinton. "Not one picture has ever been on the market. I feel sure that it will come as a revelation to the public as no similar collection has been shown before."

GERMANS START 'SUPREME' PUSH AGAINST RUSSIA

MacKenzie Points Out Possible Meanings Of New Offensive

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
[By the Associated Press]

The Germans have intensified their fresh offensive against the Red front during the past twenty-four hours, and there is small doubt that they are making their supreme effort at this crucial stage of the Russo-Nazi conflict.

It's a case of now or never with the invaders, and the fierceness of this titanic struggle makes it clear that it rapidly is boiling down to a point where it must just soon.

Evidence of heavy Hitlerian reinforcements is seen in the swelling of the battle in the southern sector about Kiev. The Nazis appear to be throwing special weight into this operation, which threatens Russia's communications with the Black Sea and vital oil supplies.

Action on Other Fronts

However, there has been no slackening in the sanguinary battle in the center of the line about Smolensk, gateway to Moscow. The invaders also claim to have made another deep thrust into the Bolshevik defenses north of Smolensk at Khoin.

Berlin reiterates that the objective of all the Nazi operations continues to be the destruction of the Red forces rather than the immediate capture of territory. That likely gives a fair picture of the position, for while this claim certainly serves as an excellent excuse for failure to smash the Muscovite defenses, yet concentration on destruction of the Red army is a logical development and the Hitlerian strategy undoubtedly is devoted in very considerable degree to that end.

I should say that this wasn't true at the outset of the Nazi invasion. Then the Germans—either overestimating their own strength, or, like most everybody else, being completely fooled as to Soviet preparedness—figured on rolling the defenders back without much effort and achieving another real blitzkrieg.

Hitler Changed Plans

The amazing resistance of the Russians, however, forced Hitler to change his plan of operations. After the first onslaught it became quite apparent that it would avail him little to capture territory while the Bolshevik fighting forces remained in being. Thus there has developed one of the bloodiest combats of history.

What further line of strategy the Russians intend to pursue hasn't been disclosed as yet by the spin of Moscow. That is to say, we don't know whether Stalin is figuring on employing all his resources in holding his present line at all costs, or whether he may intend to make strategic withdrawals.

There can be little doubt that he has large fresh reserves at his disposal unless he has just thrown them into the battle line. It wouldn't be surprising if he is holding a big force in readiness with the idea of using it at the right moment for a heavy counter offensive after the Hitlerites have fully extended themselves in this latest phase of the conflict.

ALL JAP SHIPS CLEAR FROM U.S.

San Francisco, Aug. 5 (AP)—All Japanese ships have gotten out of U. S. Pacific Coast ports today and reports from Tokyo indicated no more ships flying the Rising Sun flag would be seen in American ports for some time.

The last ship to leave for home was the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Heian Maru, which sailed from Seattle late yesterday. Nearly 12 hours earlier, the $15,000,000 liner Tatuta Maru sailed from San Francisco.

Both ships unloaded their raw silk cargoes, the Tatuta leaving $2,500,000 worth at San Francisco and the Heian $1,000,000 worth in Seattle. The cargoes were discharged only after numerous maritime libel actions had been filed. NYK line officials originally had planned to take the silk back to Japan.

STOLEN TOOLS ARE REPLACED

Detroit, Aug. 5 (AP)—Toolmakers in two plants crippled by thefts of precision instruments went ahead on full defense production schedules today thanks to quick help from rival companies and private citizens.

Word of the thieves' work got around rapidly, and help came fast—from as far distant as Minneapolis.

Heavily engaged on defense work, the Majestic Tool and Manufacturing Corporation and the Central Machine Company were invaded early Sunday by thieves who stole several thousand dollars worth of micrometers, gauges, and other instruments.

A halt in production appeared inevitable. Meanwhile, the Federal Bureau of Investigation started an inquiry to determine if saboteurs were responsible. Then the help started coming in to grateful managers.

"Within a short time," said John W. Parker, president of the Majestic Company, "we had enough instruments to continue our work on a full-time basis. Without them we

885,000 Pounds Of Aluminum Received At 4 State Centers

Harrisburg, Aug. 5 (AP)—Pennsylvania's aluminum drive for national defense netted 885,000 pounds in four large population areas, reports from Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Harrisburg and Easton showed today.

Twelve other centers have yet to report to the state council of defense which set 1,500,000 pounds as the commonwealth's goal.

Totals at the four reporting centers were: Philadelphia, 475,000 pounds, including 362,000 from the city and 60,000 from Delaware County; Pittsburgh—250,000; Harrisburg, 100,000; including 31,800 from the York area and 25,500 from the Lancaster area; Easton—60,000.

would have been forced to shut down indefinitely.

"A long distance telephone call from Minneapolis offered a height gauge—an instrument almost impossible to obtain in less than three months. We had so many calls that it would be unfair to mention any of our friends without naming them all, and that would be a long list."

A. C. Elchorst, superintendent at Central Machine, reported "many calls."

DODGERS HOME FOR DRIVE AT LEAGUE TITLE

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The brash Brooklyn Dodgers are back home, hoping to fatten their pennant appetite on helpless eastern brethren, and everything is in their favor.

After floundering around the west for several days they managed to return with a four-game winning streak and last night they promptly made it five by overpowering the staggering New York Giants, 11-6.

From now until the western clubs start their final circuit of the east August 18 the Dodgers' opposition will be the Giants, whom they have beaten seven out of 11; the Boston Braves, who have been their victims nine out of 11; and the last-place Phillies, whom they have whipped in 11 out of 12.

The Dodgers are back in stride. Both Whitlow Wyatt and Kirby Higbe have become winning pitchers again. Dolph Camilli has regained his batting eye, hitting over 400 since his visit to a hospital. And the whole club has regained the drive which characterized it at the start of the season.

Tough Row for Cards

Meanwhile the St. Louis Cardinals face a sterner task. They have to subdue the Pittsburgh Pirates, Cincinnati Reds and the Chicago Cubs, all of whom are striving to get back into the race.

Yesterday they cuffed the Cubs, 4-2, all right, but they lost the services of their keystone star, Frank (Creepy) Crespi, who was hit in the face by a line-drive during pre-game practice.

In the only other National League contest John Lanning held the Reds to three hits while the Pirates plowed to a 4-1 triumph.

The New York Yankees hit the winning trail again with a 7-5 decision over the last-place Washington Senators.

A ninth-inning home run by Jimmie Fox decided a 7-6 struggle in favor of the Boston Red Sox over the Philadelphia Athletics in the only other major league game.

Man-Eating Trout Wins Lie Contest

Livingston, Mont., Aug. 5 (AP)—Man-eating trout in Royall's River in Maine got so mad when a Massachusetts fisherman started to fish with a rod and fly instead of a club that they chased him up a tree, then jumped up and down snapping at his heels.

That reads like a lie.

Well, it is. But it won for John Gould, Yarmouth, Maine, newspaperman, the fish story telling championship of the Liar's Club of the Livingston trout derby.

In submitting his tale Gould noted that the prize was a fly rod. For that he has no use "because here in Yarmouth * * we go down behind the office when we want some fish and we hit them over the head when they come on the bank to pick blueberries."

New York, Aug. 5.—(The Special News Service)—Billy Conn and his Mrs. left Hollywood for Pittsburgh yesterday. . . . Billy made a big hit out there. . . . Bob Olin, ex-light-heavyweight champion, is making more dough selling booze than he ever made in the ring. . . . Old Fox Clark Griffith is pretty sore at the Minneapolis ball club for giving the Giants first call on outfielder Babe Barna. . . . Down in San Juan, Puerto Rico, tomorrow Gertrude Ederle will celebrate her 15th anniversary of swimming the English channel. . . . Horace Stoneham's statement from Pittsburgh was just what everybody knew all along—that Bill Terry could stay with the Giants as long as he likes. Bill may not get along with everybody, but if there's a smarter manager in the majors we're willing to learn.

Today's Guest Star

Wirt Giammo, Chattanooga Times: "The Pittsburgh Pirates—or Frankie Frisch's new Gas House Gang—must have heard about the magic of the V. . . . Six weeks ago they were a comfortable seventh. . . . Now they are the hottest club in the National league."

Caught on the Fly

The grapevine says the Saratoga gambling joints are running full blast despite warnings from the state. . . . Another grapevine says both the Giants and Yankees will go back to broadcasting games next season. . . . If you want to get aboard a good prospect for next year's Kentucky Derby, put a few bob on Soldier Song, a son of Man O'War. . . . Cincinnati—one of the best towns in the country in this book—gets back in the fight running tomorrow night with Cleveland Brown meeting Sonny Brenks. Today Margolis is the promoter.

DOC PARSHALL SEEKS THIRD TROTTERING WIN

Goshen, N. Y., Aug. 5 (AP)—This little village in the hills was getting all dressed up today for its annual big day, but the holiday spirit spreading through the neighborhood passed right on by Doc Parshall's barn at Good Time Park.

Doc's rosy hopes of winning his third Hambletonian Stake tomorrow, and become the first owner-trainer-driver to turn the trick in the corn tassel derby, were sick with a high fever.

These hopes are all wrapped up in a three-year-old tagged Perpetual. He looked like a mighty good thing for the $45,000 jackpot off his three recent stake victories. But Doc walked into Perpetual's stall last evening and found the colt all sore so badly with a temperature of 103 that he was just about sure his standard-bearer wouldn't be in first-rate condition before tomorrow's big heat, much less in time for the filing of entries today.

Other Starters

Now the talk of the early-arriving hundreds centered around Bill Galton, the brown colt owned by R. H. Johnston of Charlotte, N. C.

If Perpetual isn't ready to go, Bill's biggest threats probably will come either from His Excellency, owned by William Strang of Brooklyn, or Fast Train, from the stable of E. T. Gerry, the New York harness racing commissioner.

Besides these three, the more-or-less definite starters include Mer-

Pittsburgh, Aug. 5 (AP)—Tommy Yarosz, 153, of Monaca, Pa., brother of the former Middleweight Champion Teddy Yarosz, added another victim to his string of knockout triumphs last night by beating Hank Claypool, 145, of Cleveland, so badly the referee stopped the fight in the third round. It was to have gone 10 rounds.

Yarosz had Claypool on the floor three times.

Wins 18th Game In Eastern Loop

[By the Associated Press]

Charles "Red" Embree demonstrated last night why the Cleveland Indians purchased him recently from Wilkes-Barre in the Eastern league.

Pitching what may be his last game for the first place Barons he won his 18th game of the season against three defeats, shutting out Albany, 1 to 0, with a three-hit masterpiece.

Williamsport stayed on Wilkes-Barre's heels, 1½ games behind, by nosing out Hartford, 4 to 3.

Binghamton pulled within one game of the first division by blanking Scranton, 2 to 0. Elmira made it two straight over Springfield, 4 to 3.

HARD TO GET JURY FOR TRIAL OF BUCHALTER

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—Prospective jurors are shying from duty at the murder trial of Louis (Lepke) Buchalter, Federal prisoner, former No. 1 industrial racketeer of the nation and for two years the most sought fugitive in North America.

A special jury panel of 250 was called into Judge Franklyn Taylor's Brooklyn court yesterday to hear the case against Buchalter and three co-defendants; 26 didn't appear, and 129 others offered a variety of reasons to be excused from service.

One man said he was to be married next week, others said they were needed in defense industries and still others pleaded the need for summer vacations or even the affliction of hay fever.

Judge Taylor denied 16 requests, granted 18, and deferred decision in the others.

Murder Occurred in 1936

Charged with participation in the murder of Joseph Rosen, a Brooklyn storekeeper, in 1936, to prevent him from testifying in a flour trucking racket case, Buchalter sat without emotion through the long court day.

Not once did he grin as he did when he pleaded guilty to a narcotics law violation and received a 14-year-federal prison term in 1940.

Since that time, Buchalter has been sentenced for 30 years to life in Sing Sing prison for participation in a bakery shakedown racket. For months he fought New York's efforts to put him on trial for his life.

The Buchalter rackets, during a period of years, touched virtually every corner of the United States and, in the case of narcotics, extended beyond the nation's borders. Monopolistic, gangster control of furs, bakery trucking, flour trucking and other fields were charged to him.

Do's and Don'ts—that will help you use 1/3 less gasoline for Uncle Sam

DO

- 1 Have your carburetor adjusted for the most economical mixture of gasoline and air.
- 2 Have ignition system and spark plugs checked regularly for most economical performance.
- 3 Keep transmission and differential properly lubricated, and lubricate chassis regularly. Use correct grade of lubricating oil in engine and change it regularly for maximum efficiency.
- 4 Keep the cooling system clean and filled to proper level.
- 5 Keep tires properly inflated. Keep brakes adjusted to eliminate "drag."

DON'T

- 1 Don't speed. Driving at high speed greatly increases fuel consumption. Wind resistance increases by geometric proportion to speed. At 60 miles an hour it is four times greater than at 30. Drive at a reasonable, safe speed and save.
- 2 Don't make "jack-rabbit" starts. Driving in first and second gear multiplies the consumption of gasoline. Watch your starts at traffic lights—avoid sudden bursts of speed.
- 3 Don't let your car idle at the curb—don't race your motor when starting. This is hard on the motor and wastes gasoline.
- 4 Don't use your car unless you have to. Plan your driving. Group your errands.
- 5 Don't forget others. Share the transportation your car provides—double up with friends going the same way.

Do it the voluntary American Way!

"I hope that this (saving of gasoline) will be VOLUNTARY. I hope that this VOLUNTARY saving will be undertaken immediately.

"If it is not, then we can only conclude that our many exhortations . . . have fallen on indifferent ears, and that it will be necessary to put into effect some system of INVOLUNTARY RATIONING."

DESTINATIONS

TOO MUCH stress is placed upon destinations. Take a vacation, for instance. We plan to spend our time at a certain place. It will be our destination. We disregard the interesting between before that destination.

It was three days before I arrived at the destination of my own vacation—but every hour was a part of that vacation and there was something of interest all along the way. We left on a sunny morning and journeyed through beautiful New England. This is my favorite American section, taken as a whole. There is an aroma of the past all about it. It is historic. Its neatly kept farms and small towns are an inspiration and its quaint doorways and white steeped churches are pictures for the artist in themselves.

The first night we stopped at Ogunquit, that famous Maine village. Along the shore we watched scores of folks gathering clams and having bakes and picnics. The most interesting of all shores along the coast of the United States, to my notion, is the New England coast, although Nova Scotia remains a close second. In many ways the latter surpasses the former.

Our second day found us in Canada—in New Brunswick—where we spent our second night at St. John, a busy city these days but hospitable to all visitors. Here is where the Loyalists fled during the revolution and here many of them were buried. New Brunswick is a beautiful Province, lake spotted, the beautiful St. John river flowing through its center, and with many a favorite Summer resort. Its hills and fine roads and its cool climate are ideal.

My greatest Canadian thrill, however, comes when I cross the border from New Brunswick into Nova Scotia, my favorite Province now for a dozen years, where I have my summer island lodge. The third day found us walking over the well worn pine-needled paths and boating across Grand Lake. "Teddy," my tamed red squirrel, welcomed me and searched every pocket for peanuts. He found them all full! Then there were my tamed wild ducks—one mother with a brood of eleven small ones that followed me all over the island.

And so here I am at my destination, thought every foot, between was a destination in itself. I can say to all my friends back home that Canada is just as hospitable as ever. No inconvenience at the border—courtesy and kindness on the part of every official—travelers more welcome than ever—and a grand place for a cool delightful vacation!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Sun Over All."

THE FITTER

Time after time she stood or sat
For fittings, patient as could be
To get a garment trim as that.
Her tailor? Called Old Sol is he
A traveling tailor on the go.
She caught him journeying east to west.

Or near or far or high or low,
His was the work she fancied best.
High on the roof she watched for him,
Low on the sand she sought him out.

Begging a single garment trim,
Proudly in which to walk about.
And now the fitting times have passed
'Twas weeks ago since they began.

Perfection's pride is hers at last!
Miss Janet has her coat of tan.

The Murder Of Dudley Digges

The Authentic Account of a Tragedy: One of the Earliest in What Is Now Adams County

Additional "Notes" on the trial of Jacob Kitzmiller made by the Presiding Judge, Chief Justice Allen.

By Edward McPherson

John Seyfert, Anthony Wormley came to Kitsmiller's Shop, wanting a screw to be made for his Rifle Gun. Jacob Kits. (said he would make it) in 2 days. Henry Digges (was there) with a Rifle. You have a fine Rifle. If shoot mark when you, A. and H. did that. A. Wormley came into the Room where Seyfert was and said he had won a ½ gallon of liquor and desired Martin to let him have it. A. W. walked out in the kitchen, came in again. I saw Dudley Digges, Patrick Coyle, John Stackers. Afterwards, by and by, Jacob Sheely came with Grain to the mill and 2 horses asking for the Miller. Martin went out to take the grain. A strange man that he had not seen before laid hold of Martin Kitzmiller, struggling, turning over another. Martin made a noise. His son Jacob ran out of the shop with a gun in his hand. 3 men caught hold of him: Dudley Digges, H. Digges, and Jno. Stackers, struggling and pulling up and down. M. K. Struggling with the strange man crying for help. The strange man abused the woman, tore her cap, pulled her by the hair and got into the house, and Seyfert with him. Whilst in the house, a gun went off and before he got out Digges was shot. The strange man holding him with H. Digges wanted to carry him away. Martin came out with a gun, told him to begone or he would shoot him. Henry Digges pointed the Gun at Martin whilst the strange man and Martin were struggling. They worked up and down. Henry stood off at a distance, called to have the Taylor bring my brother here. He went to Digges and lifted (him) up and got him 2 yards more or less but could get no further when he called to Henry and they got him go about a Pole but no further. He laid a little while and then he ordered Girls to lay straw under him or about him. He lay there two hours more or less then he asked for water and water was brought, but no dram in the house. (It was) asked by somebody whether he, D. Digges, would go into the house. He said no. Then we turned (him) on the straw and he dyed. He was asked twice.

Seyfert received no Blow. 2 more of his (Kitsmiller's) sons came whilst they were struggling, they were knocked down—holes in their heads and bloody, but he did not seem them (hit). Digges was shot in the middle of the Back above or near the Hipp. He dyed there—he saw him before and after he was dead. Whilst lying on straw he asked for the Boy Jacob—wanted to see him—he (Jacob) went into the House and said he could not go and see a man in such a condition. Digges said God Almighty would forgive him and he desired they would not hurt him. Jacob seemed to be very sorry. Henry Digges held it up pointing the gun to and fro towards Martin whilst struggling with Martin. There was his wife and some of the company with them. Spoke to Wilmot, the strange man to go off or else he would shoot him. He went off and came again for his creature. He did not know the strange man nor even asked him who he was. He was in the house looking out of the window when the man took Martin by the hand and held him fast, and then the struggle, and pull and tow near upon the ground. The wife went out to assist and was torn by the hair by the strange man. Smithy Shop was about a Pole from the place where they were engaged. Kitsmiller paid tax about a year ago when in this County. The gun went off after the Sheriff seized Kitsmiller about such work, then as he saw, not 2 minutes.

Mr. H. and D. Digges were of the party with the Sheriff. He took a gun carried it out, told him to be gone. He came to work as a Taylor 2 or 3 days before. Cant tell whether H. Digges's Gun was loaded or no, but the same Gun that he had when he shot with Wormley.

Jacob Sheely. He came with 3 creatures to the mill. He saw those people walking up and down. He asked for the Miller. The miller took the Baggs off, when a strange man caught him by the hand as if he would have shaken him by the hands but said he arrested him in Mr. Digges' name. Kitzmiller struggled when wife came out. Jacob and 3 others struggling for the gun and was afraid his Creatures would be scared. He saw them fighting and was talking with his little Boy. The gun went off but did not see. A. W. had gun and another young man, whom he did not know. 3 were on Jacob and would take the gun from him but he would not. He cant tell when the Gun went off, but when it went off all ran away. Not long in struggling for the Gun—as long as can count 30. About a quarter of an hour between arrest and Gun going off the wife ran up to help her husband.

John Stackers. Came to Mr. Digges' house. There was the sheriff and several others. He asked where he was going. He made a joke, and afterwards he called him aside and asked him to take Kitzmiller. Then they went about a mile and then H. D. and A. W. parted, went to shoot at a mark to give them a signal if the old man was at home. When they shot, then they rode up. Digges and Stackers and Patrick Coyle. A. W. went into the Storeroom and asked for Liquors. W. Had beat H. D. and won Liquors. Then Sheely came to the Mill. The Miller came out and the Sheriff was in the Smithy Shop. Then Jacob called for his Rifle. Kitsmiller and wife and Sheriff struggling together, and Jacob and Digges had hold of the Gun together all one among another. Patrick Coyle gave young Kitzmiller a Blow on the head. Stackers did not strike, saw Dudley Digges drop down at the noise of the Gun. His face to Dudley Digges' face. A yard off from Digges when he fell down on his knees, and carried him to the corner of the Smithy shop, ½ quarter of an hour from arrival. Not a minute between his seeing the struggle and falling of Digges. No word heard by him that passed between Digges and Jacob. After all fled forth, he saw Henry Digges there. He went off and saw Leonard Kitsmiller, strike him several Blows. He saw Patrick Coyle strike Hans Leonard Kitsmiller. They had small Hickory sticks to lick their Horses, or Switches. J. Wilmot had one Hickory Stick thicker than the Thumb and Patrick Coyle had a Hickory Stick. He saw them cut the

Gasoline Hoarding May Void Insurance

Harrisburg, Aug. 5 (AP)—The 12-hour nightly curfew—7 p. m. to 7 a. m.—on gasoline sales found some motorists carrying home extra fuel in large cans and the State Department of Insurance said today it might affect insurance policies on their dwellings.

Carrying the extra gasoline in automobiles would not affect insurance policies on the vehicles; a spokesman for the department said, "Probably because the concerns never thought there would be such a hazard."

But, he continued, storing it in garages—many of which are now attached directly to homes—might void some of the policies on furniture, and the house, itself.

JAPS-REDS IN 'MINOR' CLASH

Shanghai, Aug. 5 (AP)—Lieut. Col. Kunio Akiyama, official spokesman for the Japanese forces in China, said today a minor clash of Japanese and Soviet border troops occurred near Manchuli about two weeks ago.

Manchuli is just inside extreme western Manchukuo on a railway to Siberia.

(Unconfirmed reports of Japanese-Russian border clashes had circulated from time to time since Germany invaded Russia.)

His disclosure came at a time when Japan was reported moving forces northward to reinforce troops along the Siberian border.

(Authoritative quarters in London said the Japanese had reinforced their Manchukuo garrison of a quarter-million men "substantially.")

Akiyama said one Japanese was wounded and Soviet casualties were not known. A few Soviet troops crossed into Manchukuo, he said, and exchanged shots with Japanese. Only a few were said to have participated on either side and the skirmish was described as short-lived.

No Protests Filed

The frontier remained unchanged, Akiyama said, and neither government protested regarding the incident.

The Japanese spokesman emphasized that there had been frequent unimportant skirmishes along the frontier in recent years which both sides had minimized by tacit agreement. He added that there had been no clashes since the one two weeks ago.

Dairen, just north of Port Arthur on the Yellow Sea, virtually is an armed camp with Japanese troops, heavy artillery and large quantities of munitions and other supplies constantly moving along the streets, foreigners arriving here reported.

Woman Stabbed In Her Home; Son Is Quizzed

Pittsburgh, Aug. 5 (AP)—Mrs. Ruth B. Eskey, X-ray technician at a Homestead hospital was found stabbed and beaten in her east end apartment early today.

Her 15-year-old son, John Richard Eskey, home on a vacation from a military academy in Front Royal, Virginia, also was slightly cut on the left hand and head.

City Detective Inspector Walter Monaghan said young Eskey told police he was awakened by a commotion and found his mother lying on the floor near her bed. Monaghan said Eskey had been detained for further questioning.

Mrs. Eskey, suffering from two stab wounds in the back and a score of cuts on the head and face, was too weak to be questioned. Her condition was described as fair at Shadyside Hospital.

New Blockade Ship Floats; Hitler Doomed If It Works

Kansas City, Aug. 5 (AP)—The 22-ton cigar shaped Squid today removed 50 per cent of the if from its designer's promise: "Hitler's dead as a dodo if it works."

It floated. Few of the river folk who watched A. J. Haskins pitter around the 50-foot concrete craft that resembled a silo had any idea it would float. But it did—and drew only 25 inches of water.

That's why they're wondering about the painting contractor's theory of propulsion which he says will give 2,000 ton models of the Squid a speed of 50 knots.

ROAD WORK IN STATE HALTED; NEED MATERIAL

Harrisburg, Aug. 5 (AP)—Lack of materials and transportation is delaying $35,000,000 worth of work on Pennsylvania's roads, the Highway Department disclosed today.

"Steel is the principal thing we're having trouble with," said Thomas C. Frame, chief engineer of the department, "but you might include almost anything else. For example we have been hampered considerably by the scarcity of railroad cars to handle bulk cement."

The engineer said efforts were being made to get priority rating on the materials needed to put the Commonwealth's roads in shape but added:

"We haven't made much progress so far—we're still in the toothpaste class."

F. D. R. Vetoes Appropriation
He said President Roosevelt's veto of a bill to appropriate $320,000,000 for improving strategic national defense roads meant that $7,000,000 less would be spent in Pennsylvania. However, he echoed the comment of I. Lamont Hughes, Highway Secretary, that:

"Pennsylvania is in better shape financially to stand the loss of this money than any other state in the union."

Frame said 3,000 miles of highway in the Commonwealth had been designated as strategic in national defense plans, in addition to other roads which military authorities wanted improved in the vicinity of military posts at Indiantown Gap and Carlisle.

President Roosevelt vetoed the bill chiefly because he objected to apportionment of $125,000,000 among the states on a pro-rata basis—population, area, etc.—rather than giving the executive department power to use the money at points of greatest defense needs.

In addition to the work now under way on roads, Frame said, "we hope to have some nice big jobs in the near future." But, he added, the whole program depended on getting materials.

"DEFENSE FAIR" OPENS SEPT. 20

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—A "defense fair," the biggest public exposition since the World's Fair, will open in New York next month (September 20-October 18, designed to give the citizen an intimate glimpse of this country's drive for military preparedness.

The fair will occupy all four floors of Grand Central Palace—a floor space of more than four acres. It will be aimed at educating the public as to the nation's defense needs, and giving manufacturers an opportunity to demonstrate how they are cooperating with the defense program.

Two-thirds of the exhibits, will be provided by the government and the other third by the defense industries.

Proceeds from the fair, to be conducted by a newly-formed non-profit corporation known as Defense Exposition Inc., will be divided between the United Service Organizations and the Office of Civilian Defense.

Plans call for special emphasis on the civilian side of the defense problem and will include exhibits and instruction in such things as fire protection, bomb-proofing, public safety, defense housing and such problems as social security, medical justice, food, clothing and recreation.

'Ism' Debate May Split CIO Meeting

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 5 (AP)—Facing the threat of a split on action to bar Communist, Nazi or Fascist sympathizers from the CIO United Automobile Workers, delegates to the union's sixth annual convention begin business sessions today.

A dozen resolutions condemning the "isms" are in the hands of committees.

Opposition resolutions contend the CIO "has attained its popularity by being a truly democratic organization and it has been shown that those people who are Red-baiters . . . invariably have something to hide and use Red-baiting only as a smoke screen."

Henry Ford, Homer Martin, former UAW-CIO president, and Rep. Martin Dies were specifically named "Red-baiters" in a resolution introduced by Local 155, Detroit.

Woman Killed By Car Near Meadville

Meadville, Pa., Aug. 5 (AP)—A woman identified by Coroner Luther J. King as Elizabeth M. Blakeslee, 50, Corry, was killed early today by an automobile as she walked along Route 322 five miles south of Meadville.

King said the driver the machine, whom he identified as W. L. Smith, of Linesville, told him he was unable to swerve to avoid striking Miss Blakeslee.

SHOT CLEANING GUN

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 5 (AP)—William Pierce, 23, was reported in serious condition today at Fitzgeraid-Mercy Hospital after a 22 calibre rifle he was cleaning accidentally discharged, sending a bullet through his abdomen.

THAILAND IS UNDER PRESSURE

Bangkok, Thailand, Aug. 4 (Delayed) (AP)—Thai officials would not deny today that Japan is applying pressure for the granting of certain demands, and the impression was general, despite an outward calm, that Thailand is facing a momentous decision in her relations with Japan, Britain and the United States.

Officials refused to indicate the nature and scope of Japanese demands or the government's probable attitude, but it is generally felt that the presence of Japanese forces on Thailand's eastern frontier in Indo-China necessitates a realistic and cautious policy.

(London reports have said the Japanese were demanding air bases in Thailand, similar to concessions wrung from Indo-China. The Japanese newspaper Kokumin said today that Thailand, like Indo-China, was "under merciless pressure" by the United States and Britain and should "draw the moral" from Indo-China's acceptance of Japanese assistance in defending her sovereignty.)

"IS IT IMPORTANT?"

Does it matter, you may ask, where I take this prescription? Most druggists fill prescriptions. Isn't one place just about as good as another? True, most druggists do fill prescriptions. And most doctors write prescriptions. Yet you seek out one specific medical man, because you have confidence in him. This same element of confidence, in our professional integrity and ethical standards, impels an increasing number of thoughtful persons to bring their prescriptions here.

LIVESTOCK UPS FARM PRICES 17 TO 78 PER CENT

BY FRANKLIN MULLIN

Chicago, Aug. 5 (AP)—Domestic livestock, American agriculture's richest sources of income, are producing at full emergency rates to meet wartime demand and are yielding farmers prices 17 to 78 per cent greater than a year ago, market statistics showed today.

Not only are milk cows and hens breaking all records for output, but prices farmers receive for their produce, once classed as a source for the farm wife's pin money, have spiraled upward. Furthermore, the value of all livestock on farms has risen sharply.

Prices of all principal livestock and livestock products are now above parity and well above the minimums the government sought to maintain when it began its Lend-Lease and Domestic Relief buying program in April. In fact, at mid-July butterfat, chickens, beef cattle, veal calves, lambs and wool were about 110 per cent of parity, the minimum ceiling provided under price control legislation now pending.

To Boost Farm Income

This steep rise in output and prices is expected to contribute much more than half of agriculture's 1941 income, which some market experts believe may top that of 1929. The rise reflects farmers' early response to government pleas for more hogs, dairy products, chickens and eggs, after passage of the Lend-Lease Bill. Huge government purchases of livestock products, totaling almost 500,000,000 pounds of pork, lard, milk products and eggs since the beginning of the program, have helped to raise prices, thus directly spurring production rising domestic consumer purchasing power also has been a potent factor.

In addition to increased price yields from livestock products, livestock have been enhanced handsomely in value. Stock yards experts estimated the market value of the nation's population of hogs, around 53,000,000 head at the start of the year, has been increased more than half a billion dollars since January 1.

MAY VISIT LONDON

London, Aug. 5 (AP)—The Sunday Chronicle says Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt wants to visit London, by bombing plane this fall. The newspaper's "behind the news" columnist said yesterday she "may be in London this autumn to talk about the evacuation of children." He added that "she wants to come here in a bomber."

Urges Farmers To Increase Harvest

Columbus, O., Aug. 5 (AP)—An industrial research expert advised in nation's vegetable growers Monday to begin producing raw materials which the United States has been buying abroad.

Great opportunities await the American truck farmer in the cultivation of special crops essential to industry, especially since the war has reduced or cut off imports of numerous products, said Dr. Paul Kolachov, of Louisville, Ky., in a paper prepared for delivery before the vegetable growers' association of America.

BUILDS BOAT TO "AID" BRITISH

Kansas City, Aug. 5 (AP)—A Kansas City paint contractor, who worked in San Francisco shipyards during the World War, believes he has the answer to Britain's marine defense—if he ever gets it launched.

Right now A. J. Haskins is merely the designer of a cigar-shaped steel and concrete model boat. The natives call it the Freak of the Creek.

He calls it a semi-submarine blockade runner. Haskins doesn't believe surface craft or bombers could spot it easily. It sits low in the water. He believes that it would be too speedy for submarines to hit. Its speed would come from a pipe, which pierces the length of the model. Diesel engines would suck water in at the bow and force it out aft for propulsion.

A 2,000-ton sea-going model could be propelled at 50 knots by a four-foot pipe, the inventor claims.

But even Haskins won't know, until his 22-ton model is launched in nearby Blue River, whether Yankee ingenuity once more has answered the call of national defense.

ARM YANKED OFF

Reynoldsville, Pa., Aug. 5 (AP)—Trying to free a belt which had become stuck, Bernard Bowser, 29-year-old owner of a trucking concern at Big Run, had his right arm torn off yesterday when it was caught in a conveyor contrivance used in unloading lime from a railroad car.

CRASH INJURES FIVE

Philadelphia, Aug. 5 (AP)—Collision of two trolley cars at a busy West Philadelphia intersection last night injured five women passengers and tied up traffic for more than an hour. One woman was hurt earlier in a collision of two automobiles, a trolley and a bus in the downtown section.

STEEL SCRAP PRICES PROBED

Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—Price Administrator Leon Henderson announced Monday a Justice Department investigation of alleged monopolistic boosting price practices in the scrap iron and steel trade which he threatened curtailment of defense steel production.

The inquiry was requested by Henderson's office.

Henderson urged that, if necessary, a special grand jury be impaneled to eliminate the abuses and prevent "hoarding" of scrap. He told the acting attorney general that about 15 large brokers of iron and steel scrap supplied about 90 per cent of the metal purchased by steel mills, after purchasing the scrap metal from sub-dealers.

"It is my understanding that certain of these brokers and dealers have subsidized secretly other dealers and sub-dealers, some times as many as a 100 or more," Henderson charged. "In this way a single broker has, in some instances, achieved a monopoly over all of the scrap produced in an entire region."

Secretly maintained subsidies have permitted some brokers and dealers not only to maintain control over prices, but also over supply, Henderson said.

Predicts Collapse Of German Reich

London, Aug. 5 (AP)—Camille Gutt, finance minister of the Belgian government in exile, in a BBC broadcast Monday said he believed that a sudden German collapse "is no longer so far off."

"We have now started on the road to victory," he said. "Nobody can name the dates, but the day is no longer so far off when the Germans, realizing as in 1918, their losses, their failures, their shame, will crack up all of a sudden, and collapse because, let us not forget it, they are the same as 27 years ago."

Gutt said the German people "did not believe Russia would put up a fight, and God, how she fights."

MANUFACTURER DIES

Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 5 (AP)—Fred K. Sheesley, 57, vice president of the Insul Mastic corporation of Johnstown, died Sunday in Santa Monica, California, where he had been for a year. Funeral services were held there today and the body will be returned here for burial. The widow, Mrs. Anna Sheesley, a son, John, of Houston, Texas, and a daughter, Mrs. W. H. Heeney, of Ottawa, Ontario, survive.

Jap Liner Sails For Home; Leaves Huge Silk Cargo

San Francisco, Aug. 5 (AP)—The $15,000,000 Japanese liner Tatuta Maru sailed for home Monday after hastily unloading a $2,500,000 cargo of raw silk highly prized for the defense program.

At Seattle another Japanese ship prepared to follow later in the day. The Tatuta Maru at San Francisco, with emergency longshore crews working around the clock, disbed the last of her cargo about 6 p. m. last night. Then she rounded up her 125 passengers, who have charged the last of her cargo about 6 p. m. last night. Then she rounding, rushed aboard supplies of 1,000 barrels of motor oil (all that was permitted her of a 9,000-barrel request) ballast cargo of cocoa beans and asphalt, and called for a bar pilot to take the vessel outside the Golden Gate.

Somewhere at sea, the Asamu Maru, which left Honolulu Friday with 140 American passengers and a cargo including nearly $3,000,000 worth of raw silk, was maintaining radio silence.

Likes Singing But Not Before 6 A. M.

West Orange, N. J., Aug. 5 (AP)—Charles L. Neill, Director of Public Affairs, is willing to help this town's singing garbage men form their own choral club, but they will have to stop practicing while they work during the early morning hours.

He told the men:

"You will be pleased to know there has been no complaint about your voices. In fact several persons who complained about the singing have taken the trouble to say that they thought it was very good singing. The trouble is that most of West Orange doesn't care for good singing between midnight and 6 a. m."

MADE UP TO KILL

by Kelley Roos

Chapter Eight
No Light On Lee Gray
"I'm afraid you're not going to play tonight, Carol," Bowers said grimly.

"But I'm all right now, honestly I am. Just a little weak."

"It isn't that, Carol!" I cried. "It's that someone tried to kill you, someone right in the company! And tonight they might..."

I stopped, wishing I could bite off my stupid tongue. Carol's lips trembled and she had a tough time making the corners turn up instead of down. But it came out a smile.

"I know, Halia. They've told me about the poison and the glass and when it was done. And I... I still can't believe it. There isn't anyone who would... would do that to me." The corners went down this time and she looked scared and little and yet brave too. She took a long breath.

"But even if somebody did try to kill me, I still want to play. I've got to! Oh, don't you see? If I didn't play tonight I'd be afraid to tomorrow night. It's sort of like... like going up in an airplane after

RUSSIA WILL GET MILITARY AID FROM U. S.

Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—The United States backed Russia against Nazi Germany today with a formal pledge of "all economic assistance practicable"—an undertaking that may bring fresh complications in relations with Japan.

The assistance would be in military supplies and implements of defense, even though the Japanese controlled press in recent weeks has been printing veiled warnings against the routing of such shipments across the Pacific to the Russian Siberian port of Vladivostok.

Indications that such a route would be used were seen in the State Department's announcement that "favorable consideration" was being given Russian requests for the extension of available American shipping facilities to expedite the shipments.

The neutrality act combat zone blocks off Soviet European ports to American shipping.

The formal undertaking to supply economic aid was set forth last night in an exchange of diplomatic notes, connected with the renewal of the annual Russo-American trade agreement.

In its note the United States disclosed for the first time it already was implementing earlier informal promises of assistance by:

1. Giving urgent Soviet orders "priority assistance" upon the principles applicable to the orders of countries struggling against aggression;
2. Granting unlimited licenses for the export of a wide variety of supplies needed "for the strengthening of the defense" of Russia; and
3. Exploring the possibility of using American ships to transport some of the supplies.

Russia Can Pay
Officials emphasized that there was no question of lease-lend aid, because Russia was able to pay for its purchases here. The nature of the Soviet purchases here has been withheld on the ground that it would constitute military information.

The possibility of using American ships on the Vladivostok rail raised speculation in some diplomatic quarters whether some of the leased aid to China might be carried along with Russia cargoes for delivery to Chungking over the caravan route from Siberia.

It was pointed out that if Japan makes her threatened move into Thailand, the Burma Road supply line will be further exposed to air attacks.

Informed authorities here said that geographically Vladivostok was vulnerable to a naval attempt to halt the flow of shipping.

Pennsylvania Farmers Start Move To Oppose U.S. Wheat Quota Plan

Harrisburg, Aug. 5 (AP)—A group of farmers claiming to represent nearly half of the wheat acreage planted in Pennsylvania, set up the framework today for a statewide organization to oppose what a spokesman termed government "regimentation of agriculture."

Backed by officers of the Pennsylvania State Grange and the Secretary of Agriculture, John H. Light, a former secretary of the Grange, the more than 100 farmers selected leaders and planned a statewide meeting within 10 days.

Audley Boak, New Castle, former master of the State Grange, the temporary chairman, said that while they were specifically opposing the Federal AAA Wheat Quota System put into effect May 31, the group went on record as opposing all government interference with agriculture in Pennsylvania.

Adams Represented
The group spokesman said the farmers, who held a preliminary meeting last night in the forum of the State Education Building, represented 400,000 of the state's 907,000 acres planted to wheat last year.

They were growers from some of Pennsylvania's most fertile counties: Lancaster, Lebanon, Cumberland, Dauphin, York, Franklin, Adams, Snyder, Bedford, Blair, Lawrence, Schuylkill and Chester.

Pennsylvania farmers voted against the quota plan in the nation-wide referendum in May, but the national vote was in favor of the limited production system.

Boak said the quota plan was put into effect after the farmers had planted their wheat and that it was unfair. He said 18,000 farmers in the state grow wheat, but only 5,500 took part in the referendum.

Another spokesman for the group said the Federal government sets a wheat quota for those growing more than 15 acres and the farmer dare

EXTENSION OF SERVICE SURE SAY LEADERS

Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—Counting their battle already won, Senate leaders strove to obtain a vote at today's session on the controversial legislation extending for 18 months the service of all Army personnel.

The administration measure, however, had to wait until the chamber disposed of the substitute proposal by Senator Taft (R-Ohio) which would permit only a six-months extension in the present year's service for selectees, a year more for National Guardsmen and reservists, and no extension at all for regular Army enlisted men serving the standard three-year hitch.

Democratic leader Barkley obtained an agreement to vote on the Taft substitute at 1 p. m.

Senator Hill (D-Ala.) expressed the view that "the show will be over" after the test vote on the Taft amendment.

Under the administration's bill, the Chief Executive could keep all selectees, reservists, National Guardsmen and regular enlisted men for an additional 18 months, unless Congress meanwhile cancelled the authorization. The measure represents a compromise for an earlier proposal asking an indefinite extension of the training periods.

TWICE

Most of your hard-earned dollars you see just once briefly—and never again.

But dollars deposited in your bank account you will see again months or years later, with interest added.

And ten years from now if things were not going so well, a second look at some of these "good old dollars" could be a mighty welcome sight to you. That's one reason for banking some of them now.
